

Time	Session	Description
0815 – 0900		Registration, coffee and buns
0900 – 0910	Welcome	Stephen Lowe, Group Communications Director, Just Group, will welcome the delegation and set the context
0910 – 0940	Keynote	Edwin Schooling Latter, Director Markets and Wholesale Policy, The Financial Conduct Authority (FCA): how the FCA is responding to the early years of Pension Freedoms to help consumers achieve good outcomes.
0940 – 1040	Keynote	Janette Weir, Managing Director, Ignition House will illustrate how customers have been using their freedoms; what we have learned; and what needs to change
1040 – 1100		Coffee and networking
1100 – 1130	Keynote	Vivek Paul, Director, Senior Portfolio Strategist for the Portfolio Research Group within the BlackRock Investment Institute: UK and global trends, how the economy will shape retirement outcomes for consumers over the next decade.
1130 – 1200	Keynote	Nicholas Barr, Professor of Public Economics at the London School of Economics: Pension Freedoms – ignoring lessons from theory and practice
1200 – 1230	Keynote	Chris Curry, Director, Pension Policy Institute: what we can learn from those countries who are already decades into their freedom experiments
1230 – 1330		Buffet lunch
1330 – 1400	Keynote	Richard Willets, longevity consultant: making sense of the slowdown, understanding the latest longevity trends
1400 – 1430	Keynote	Graeme Baker, Portfolio Manager, Investec Asset Management: ESG and its impact on consumer behaviour
1430 – 1500	Keynote	Kate Ancketill, CEO, GDR Creative Intelligence, will guide us through the world of AI and fintech and their potential to help consumers plan and navigate their financial later lives.
1500 – 1520		Afternoon tea
1520 – 1550	Keynote	Nigel Peuple, Director of Policy and Research, Pensions and Lifetime Savings Association: Retirement living standards
1550 – 1625	Panel	Bringing it all together. Panel discussion between David Cooper, Group Marketing & Distribution Director, Just Group; Carolyn Jones, Head of Pensions Policy & Strategy, Money and Pensions Service; and Kate Ancketill, CEO, GDR Creative Intelligence
1625 – 1630	Close	The Conference Chair will draw proceedings to a close
1630 – 1730		A glass of something and a wave goodbye.